

Ideas for mission-minded living:

Prepare and give supply bags to the homeless

Sign up to be a mentor in our schools/Trent Hill

Pay for someone's meal

Send a card to a non-Christian you know is lonely

Sign up to provide a meal for our youth or make a donation

Offer to babysit for a single mom or families without local relatives (non-Christians)

Pray for your server at the restaurant

Keep water bottles in your car to hand out

Develop relationship with store clerks (go somewhere new)

Pass out gas gift cards

Pass out coins at a laundry mat

Donate supplies to Trent Hill

Take cookies to your doctor's office or other first responders

Make extra food for dinner and find someone to share it with

Check on an elder neighbor

Open the door for a stranger and smile

Pray for 2-3 of your neighbors. If you don't know their names, pray for their homes and an opportunity to meet them.

Be a friend to someone new. Let them tell you their story. Focus on listening. Do they know Christ?

Offer to pick up groceries for a shut-in and pray with them when delivering the groceries.

Take someone to a medical appointment.

Stop and pray for a non-Christian friend. Send them a text saying that you prayed.

Check on your non-Christian neighbor and ask them how you can pray for them.

Prayer walk/drive around your neighborhood/Hartsville.

Sponsor an unchurched child in Upward

Invite an unchurched friend to church and then take them to lunch when they come.

Pray for our nation and our leaders

Pray for our missionaries around the world as they share the gospel

Invite one of our Ukrainian friends to your home, out to eat, or for coffee.

Pick up flowers and take them to a non-Christian you know is struggling

Pray for church members that will go on mission trips this year
(Do you have your passport yet? Can you donate to help others go?)

Pray for those that have gone out from our church and are serving the Lord in full-time ministry
(Adam & Rebecca Winters, Ryan Sturgill, Rodney Sprayberry, Rocky Purvis, Paul Stephen Purvis)

Give to sponsor a Ukrainian child at the preschool

Visit our mission center and pray for those included on our board

Do you have other ideas you can share with us?